Hello,

I need you to read this email message carefully because it is very imperative. I am contacting you for an Urgent Business Transaction and further explicit investment information about your country.

I am PRINCE FAYAD H. BOLKIAH, the eldest son of PRINCE JEFRI BOLKIAH who was the former Finance Minister of Brunei Darussalam a small country located in the northwest of the island of Borneo and governed by His Majesty SHEIK HAJI HASSANAL BOLKIAH MU'IZZADDIN WADDAULAH.

I will save your time by not amplifying my extended Royal Family history which has already been disseminated by the international media during the controversial dispute that erupted between my father and his stepbrother, the sultan of Brunei SHEIK HAJI HASSANAL BOLKIAH.

You can visit the websites below for a better understanding of the situation:-

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/asia-pacific/670959.stm>

<http://www.asiaweek.com/asiaweek/magazine/2000/0310/nat.brunei.jefri.html>

As you may know from the international media, the Sultan had accused my father of financial mismanagement and impropriety of US$14.8 Billion.

This was as a result of the Asian financial crisis which made my father company Amedeo development Corporation(ADC) and government owned Brunei Investment Agency(BIA) to be declared bankrupt during his tenure in office.

X Snip etc etc.....

I am counting on your absolute transparency, honesty and confidentiality which this transaction deserves while looking forward to your prompt reply.

I await your Urgent Reply.

Wassalam & Best Regards,

PRINCE FAYAD H. BOLKIAH
BRUNEI DARUSSALAM

What an offer, too good to be true eh? I haven't bothered including my initial replies.

I may be able to contact Mr Williams when I get back to Mauritius, but time will be very short. Do you believe that I cannot even get CNN News here!

I had to leave my mobile phone and some documents behind when I left Madrid in a hurry. I must leave on my scheduled flight from Madrid on Wednesday (1525). Is there somewhere we can meet in Madrid on Wednesday morning, maybe lunch?

I will have the 32,000 Euros and will give you a small extra commission for all the trouble I have caused you (say 5000 Euros extra?).

However, I since contacted somebody in Spain who has explained that it was nothing to do with our deal.

UAE is a definite no. In 1995 I hit a camel on the Abu Dhabi to Dubai road, just south of Jabel Ali. Unfortunately I also hit the old man that was leading the camel. He was a minor relation of Sheikh Mahktoum and they are still chasing me for blood money. I would go straight to jail if I stepped in the UAE. So, it looks like London.

Attn: Mr. Clement Atlee

Sir,

When i discussed the mode of payment of this shipment fee of 3,000 Euros with His Highness Prince Fayad Bolkiah and also with the Cargo Manager, we all reached an agreement that the Shipment fee was best sent by Western Union Money Transfer.

Western Union Money Transfer is faster and easiest way to send money as the normal banking protocols that will require some days before the money can clear into the other account. Since you have already sent the shipment fee via WU, i will advice you rectify the problem and send us the Transfer informations for us to complete the shipment arrangements to Sussex.

I do not want to go back to the shipment Manager again and start telling him that you need an account where the shipment fee would be paid into because i do not want the shipping firm seeing me or yourself as being unserious about the shipment of the Boxes to Sussex.

Like i have told you earlier, the shipment/courier company are in custody of the Boxes and they have informed that if the shipment fee of 3,000 Euros is not received on or before friday the Boxes would be returned back to our Ware house in Madrid.

Expedite action immediately and send the shipment fee by Western Union Money Transfer to enable us complete shipment arrangement by Tuesday or wednesday latest.

I await your reply along with the Western Union Transfer details.

Regards,

Mr. Dennis Platt.

Dear Dennis,

No, I am quite convinced that the most convenient and expeditious means is an electronic transfer. I have spoken with the bank and they assure me that it gives immediate access to the money transferred.

I cannot believe that the company you are dealing with does not have a bank account, unless that is they are sort of fly-by-night con artists. Are you certain they are reputable Dennis?

Subject: Payment of Shipment fee

Attn: Mr. Clement Atlee

Sir,

I have spoken with the cargo manager in regards to the wire transfer of the shipment fee of 3,000 Euros.

The Cargo Manager explained that it was not in his capacity to make the companys bank account available to me so he refered me to the Accounts department. I discused with the Account officer who explained to me that the Board of Directors have met inview of the payment for the shipment fee of 3,000 Euros and they advised the money come by Western Union Money Transfer.

The account officer stated that he would adhere strictly to the instruction of the Board of Directors for the shipment fee be made through its cashier officer as he insisted that if you refused to adhere then you can go elsewhere and seek an Insured Diplomatic Courier to convey your consignment.

If you asked me, the Insured Diplomatic Courier have already received a copy of the WU Transfer slip which was not clear and they are wondering why your sudden change of payment mode.

I will advice as a fellow citizen that you go ahead and effect this transfer via Western Union so we can get thing done sooner than later bearing in mind the personality of His Highness Prince Fayad Bolkiah.

Find attached my international passport copy to further assure you of my person and also the safety of your funds.

I await your response.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Dennis,

I am afraid that your reply is most unconvincing. I am unaware of any reputable company that cannot entertain an interbank transfer as you describe. Who is this "board of directors"? Is it a bunch of jungle bunnies that have abandoned their market stall in Walthamstow for a shonky outfit in Wapping with a lock up garage?

I am starting to have grave concerns about this whole matter Dennis old son. I think you should be very careful and mind your back when dealing with these johnnies.

I need this Telex Tracer from your Bank as requested by the Courier Company headoffice in London as this shall be the proof that actually the funds where transferred from your Bank to the Bank in Greece. Without this Telex Tracer from your Bank, the courier company headoffice keeps insisting that there was no transfer from your Bank.

Once payment is confirmed, a receipt of payment will be issued to you by the courier company and your shipment airway bill will also be sent to you for the delivery of your Consignments to you in Sussex.

Dear Dennis,

Fortunately I was a long way from London when the bombs went off, but thank you for asking.

As to the transfer, well as I heard nothing from you I had to assume that something had gone wrong, Therefore I arranged for the cancellation of the transfer. The agent I engaged in Athens managed to sort things out with a few Drachmas in the right hands.

What I tell you now must go no further. He told me that a number of accounts at this bank were suspected of fraudulent activity. The bank was accepting transfers but placing them in a holding account while they investigated. The account you gave me was one of those accounts. I have since spoken to the local police and they have confirmed that Interpol's Department of General Security (Headquarters Investigation Trafficking) are also investigating these accounts.

In short Dennis, I think you should put some distance between yourself and these Greek chappies asap. Then find us another account to finish off the deal.
