

The Mugu and the Zombie

By Pantsface

This was my first successful bait. When I say successful, I mean, it succeeded in wasting the lad's time, and amused me greatly. It started with a standard Email sent from one of my baiting accounts to a Ladette found on 419eater.com's surplus Email section. This is the first bait where I tried to introduce a new word into the scammer's vocabulary "Eucalyptize." -- Since this bait, it has caught on amongst baiters, but unfortunately, not scammers.

Local Man Rises From The Dead!

By William Trekker, Orco Alabama

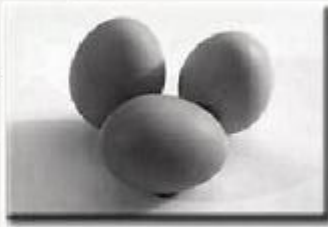

Local carpenter Pat Dunn was found murdered in his home at the age of 55, October 10th. Local police already suspect town thief and enecalytizer Hamphrey Tkias. Mr. Dunn was an avid church goer, and helped out with the Church Universal's food drive every October. Even stronger than the murder for this small town, was the fact at the funeral service on October 11th, Mr. Dunn rose from the dead! Local doctors were baffled and children were frightened as Mr. Dunn rose from the coffin, looked around confused and spoke to his wife asking "Darlene, Can I have a sandwich?"

Doctors from all over the country are now coming to perform tests on Mr. Dunn, to see if they can figure out what happened.

Friends and family of suspected murderer, Mr. Tkias, say that Hamphrey is "ticked off" that he rose from the dead.

Family and friends of Mr. Dunn are gathered to support him and work through this troubling and confusing time. Local Church Universal claim it was Mr. Dunn's nephew, Trevor that made this all possible through his work with the church, and constant prayer for Pat and the entire family and community.

Mr. Dunn was a carpenter and built shoes for children in town, and has lived his entire life on the east side of Orco and has called the town and inspiration and passion for him. All of us at the paper wish Mr. Dunn and his family the best and we will continue to write about his story, and ressurection in these pages in teh future.

I dont blame you for loving him. He was a strong and gentle man. Intelligent.

We have 3 kids together, and they are very hurt right now.

He has left you 10,000 dollars american. It turns out he was richly blessed much more than I had ever known. He was such a secretive fool. But I miss him dearly.
